

PROCLAMATION

A Proclamation Honoring Fauntleroy School's 100th Anniversary

WHEREAS, Fauntleroy School, currently known as the Fauntleroy Schoolhouse, has been a valued part of the Seattle community since 1917, providing education for thousands of students over the past century; and

WHEREAS, Fauntleroy School, upon closing as an elementary school in 1981, has provided a home for the Fauntleroy Children's Center, whose mission is to help children build a strong foundation for lifelong learning and provide educational access for all students; and

WHEREAS, Fauntleroy Schoolhouse creates a community partnership with families and neighbors, with opportunities to hold leadership roles on the Board of Directors; and

WHEREAS, Fauntleroy Schoolhouse serves the greater West Seattle community by providing a vibrant community center and gathering place where people can come to learn, play, meet, celebrate and support one another; and

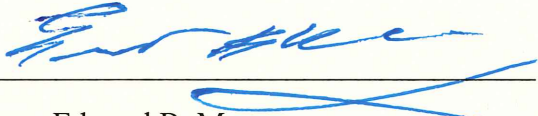

WHEREAS, the American flag once flew over Fauntleroy School, and thanks to the generosity of alumnus Christy Gamrath, let her fly again today!

NOW, THEREFORE, THE MAYOR OF SEATTLE AND THE SEATTLE CITY COUNCIL DO HEREBY PROCLAIM May 21, 2017, TO BE

Fauntleroy Schoolhouse's 100th Anniversary Day

On this day, Fauntleroy Schoolhouse is marking its 100th year of serving the community in the City of Seattle and recognizing alumni, community members and friends who have dedicated themselves to educating our children and changing the world.

PROCLAMATION

Mayor Edward B. Murray

Council President Bruce Harrell

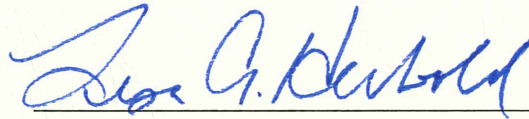

Councilmember Sally Bagshaw

Councilmember Tim Burgess

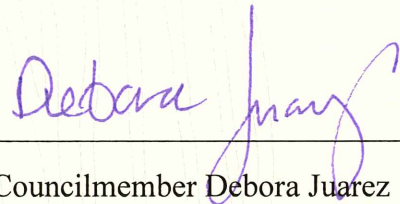

Councilmember M. Lorena González

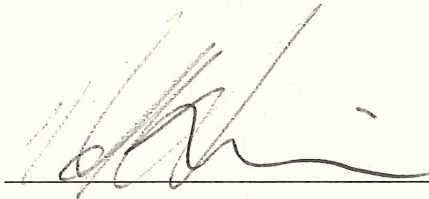

Councilmember Lisa Herbold

Councilmember Rob Johnson

Councilmember Debora Juarez

Councilmember Mike O'Brien